Man Sentenced to Prison for Home Robbery, Burglary

A 30-year-old man convicted of stealing from open houses in Calabasas and Beverly Hills was sentenced yesterday to 12 years and four months in state prison, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

On April 3, Tony Chung (dob 4/5/85) pleaded no contest to two felony counts: first-degree residential robbery and first-degree burglary, person present in case SA089092.

Additionally, the defendant admitted a special allegation that he was involved in a pattern of felony conduct involving the taking of $100,000 in property.

Deputy District Attorney Christine Von Helmolt, who prosecuted the case, said between July and September 2014, Chung stole valuable property from several open houses while pretending to be a realtor.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Lost Hills Station; Los Angeles Police Department, West Los Angeles Station; and the Santa Monica Police Department.
